LEGAL NOTICE.

The following explains itself:

DULUTH, March 31, 1891.

DEAR SIR:—You are hereby notified that all debts and book accounts of whatever nature due to the Duluth Evening Herald company have been duly transferred by order of the district court of St. Louis county to Emil Schmidt as receiver of the said company and belonging wholly and exclusively to such receiver, and you are hereby cautioned against paying any such debt to any person claiming the same adversely to the receiver, as such payment will be no protection or bar to a recovery of the same debt by the receiver.

Yours truly,
CASH & WILLIAMS,
Attorneys for Emil Schmidt, receiver of the Duluth Evening Herald.

THE ITALIAN CLOUD.

Baron Fava, the Italian minister, presented a formal document to the state department authorities at Washington yesterday which surprised them considerably.

It was none other than a request of his passport to Italy, having been recalled from his diplomatic post in this country by his government. The reason given was that the "king of Italy was dissatisfied with the progress of adjustments between the two countries touching the

New Orleans massacre.

The situation is so new and serious that no official comments can be obtained at this hour from any source. Secretary

Blaine, it is stated, will make an official announcement of Baron Fava's recall, possibly containing the views of this government tomorrow. The letter from Governor Nicholls to Secretary Blaine caused the trouble. It was received here several days ago, and a copy was sent at once to Baron Fava. This, of course, gave the appearance of being the ultimatum of this government and it appears that the baron accepted it as such and called it in that character to his government. Baron

Fava has worked for his home interests to the degree of appearing over zealous at this end of the line, but the developments would indicate that there could not have been too much zeal on his part to suit his government, which appears to have made the matter an issue of the highest importance.

There is no question that the sudden action of the Italian government is one of open hostility. To have so acted pending the investigations and progress of the law in New Orleans is significant, it is said, of an utter disregard of the conventionalities of ethics and modern diplomacy, and the United States government has abundant reason to feel offended at the action of Italy.

Whatever may be the result of this sudden cloud of war it will probably be reached by arbitration. There is not the slightest expectation or anticipation of more serious trouble. In fact, it is not yet settled that more than one or two of the Sicilians killed at New Orleans were citizens of Italy, and until this question has been settled it is premature and dis-countenanced to say the least, for Italy to take the action it has.

The general impression in Washington diplomatic circles seems to be that the action of the Italian government is attributable to a political necessity which has for a foundation the need of a new administration of foreign affairs in view for Italy. Persons who are familiar with the character and career of the Italian minister, Baron Fava, believe that while the Italian government desired to emphasize its demands for reparation for the

New Orleans affair, it was probably glad of so favorable an opportunity to get rid of the minister there.

THE CHICAGO GAS BARGE.

A new airship has been exhibited at Chicago which performs more promising-ly than the small representation of the proposed Mt. Carmel air ship with its $200,000,000 stock. The Mt. Carmel air ship simply bobbed around among the roof timbers of the exposition building without carrying anybody. The new ship, which is the product of the genius of a

Cincinnati aeronaut named Wallace, carried a fifty pound boy around in the upper atmosphere of an armory. It is a gas bag fourteen feet in diameter and twenty-eight feet long, with an aluminum car attached, and resembles the Pennington air ship.

The exhibition of models of new air ships is the latest phase of the persistent struggle to get people to invest money in aerial transportation schemes, says the Milwaukee Wisconsin. The distance between an inventor of an air ship and success is much further in the outer atmosphere than it is in the confined air of a hall, but the shrewd promoters of air ship enterprises realize that there is no such difference between in-door sailing and out-door sailing in the mind of the unscientific spectator.

It will take a good deal more than a paid up capital of $200,000,000 to make an air ship go against the wind and neither the Pennington craft nor that which carries a small boy appears to have many of the elements of success.

THE SUMMER IMPROVEMENTS.

The outlook for the head of the lakes this summer is bright. A much larger quantity of permanent improvements, public and private, will be made than ever before and the labor situation is excellent. So far the cloud of strikes and troubles has not appeared above the horizon. And there is but one note of discord in the harmony.

During the year Duluth and the various Superiors will spend, according to careful calculation, nearly $11,000,000 in improvements, municipal and individual.

West Duluth, New Duluth and St.

Louis will put probably $500,000 into municipal work, besides a tremendous amount into building. The corporation of Lakeside will improve to the extent of $200,000 with private buildings of about the same amount. It is safe to say that $15,000,000 will represent the work of the year at the head of Lake Superior.

The president of the local Carpenters union states that by May about 1000 extra carpenters will be employed, while other unions make nearly as encouraging reports.

The one note of discord in all this is the action of West Duluth village council.

It has declared in favor of doing city work by the day, of an eight-hour day, at twenty-five cents an hour. An eight-hour day is all right, but the city cannot make the wages, neither should it compel all work to be done by the day. Let property owners interested settle that. This resolution may very seriously affect the amount of work to be done in West Duluth.

A court has dismissed the petition of Benjamin Franklin's descendants, who claimed a trust fund left by the philosopher to the City of Philadelphia, and which originally amounted to some $500, and has now increased to about $100,000.

Franklin bequeathed £1000 each to Boston and Philadelphia, to be loaned for 100 years to young artificers, etc., at 5 per cent. He estimated that at the expiration of the century the amount would reach £131,000. The city was then to have £100,000, while the remaining £31,

000 was to be loaned for another century on the same terms, and at its expiration the accumulated sum was to be divided

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

The April number of the North American Review will contain an article by Cardinal Gibbons, on "Wealth and its Obligations," being the first in a forthcoming series devoted to the theme, "The Gospel of Wealth," originally published in the Review by Andrew Carnegie, and also articles on "Panperism in the United States," by Professor Richard T. Ely, on "The Example of a Great Life," by the editor, who gives an interesting sketch of the founder of Cooper Union; on "The Duty of the Hour," by the secretary of agriculture, who discusses upon the political agitation at present so actively engaging the farmers; on "The West and the Railroads," by Sidney Dillon; on "Men of the Salisbury Parliament," by Henry W. Lacy, editor of the London Daily News, and on "The Best Sign of Our Times," by Senator Emilio Castelar. It will be in every way a notable number of this patriarch of American magazines.

Harper & Brothers are about to bring out new editions of Mr. Howells' two latest novels, "Annie Kilburn" and "A Hazard of New Fortunes," in the "Franklin Square Library." This publication is in response to a popular demand for these remarkable stories in a household issue which shall be cheaper than the library edition, but worthy a place on table and shelf.

Benj. R. Tucker, of London, published Thursday, Emile Zola's new novel, "Money." It is a very dramatic study of the world of finance, centering at the Paris bourse. The author describes the rise and fall of a huge bank, which, after steadily winning control of the market through public infatuation, suddenly tumbles, crushing a multitude of stockholders in the ruin and the blood. The romance interweaves love and socialism with finance.

Macmillan & Co. will shortly issue Landor's "Imaginary Conversations," in six volumes, the first to be issued in April. It is hoped that the whole publication will be completed by December. The edition is by C. G. Crump, who edited the "Percival and Asquith" for the "Temple Library" series. There will be short explanatory notes.

The frontispiece of the April Cosmopolitan is a portrait of the late Gen. Sherman, of whom Mark Twain has something to say in his "Current Events." Dancing is very prettily treated by Elizabeth Hoiland. "The President's Office and Home" is an illustrated description of the White House. George E. Montgomery contributes a review of Melisander with a number of engaging lines from his most prominent painting, "The Niagara Canal" project is described by Charles T. Harvey. C. E., with maps and illustrations. Eliza R. Seligman, the well-known newspaper correspondent, describes "The Japanese Theater." "The Farmers Alliance" is the title of a noteworthy article by W. A. Peffer, the new United States senator from Kansas. It is the most timely contribution in the magazine. Frederick Villiers outlines his "War Correspondent's Life."

The Magazine of American History contains its usual store of documents throwing light upon the details of our country's annals. The frontispiece is from a painting of Columbus at the court of Ferdinand. This is supplemented by a rhythmic poem, "The Ballad of Columbus," by S. H. M. Byers. The table of contents contains "The Chesapeake and Lieut. Ludlow," by Robert Ludlow Fowler; "First Meeting of Peter and Sherman," by David D. Porter; "Power to Grant Patents for Inventions," Levin H. Campbell; "A Bundle of Suspicious Replies," Hon. Horatio King; "President Lincoln and his English Visitors," and others. Several short and interesting articles appear. The book notices contain many features of interest.

The Forum presents its usual brilliant array. Its articles are: "What Can We Do for the Poor?" Rev. Dr. W. S. Bradford, of New York; a study of poverty in cities; "The Fate of the Election Bill," George F. Hoar; "A Defective Census," Roger Q. Mills; "Will Morality Survive Religion?" Professor Goldwin Smith; "The Growth of Sentiment," Maj. J. W. Powell; "Madame de Staël," W. E. H. Lecky; "Formative Influences," Professor Simon Newcomb; "The Methods of Mind-Readers," Dr. Charles Gatchell, an explanation of music-readers, the so-called "mind-readers," tricks explained; "Trade Unionism and Utopia," W. H. Mallock; "Railway Passenger Rates," Professor Arthur T. Hadley; "The Flood Plains of Rivers," W. J. McGee.

Of outing it may be said that age does not pall nor custom stale its variety. Month after month it comes, fresh and luscious, as crisp as the morning, and filled with the breath of broad life. Its April table of contents includes "Anglers' Outing," "With Rod and Gun in Northwestern Woods and Waters," "Evolution in Yacht Building," "The Greek Athletes," Capt. King writes of the "National Guard of Wisconsin." There are a number of excellent stories and the departments covering all manner of outdoor sport are full of value.

Another Outside Building and Loan Association That Is Doing a Queer Business Here.

Heavy Suit for Personal Damages Brought in the Local United States Court.

President Gumpers Has Some Interesting Statements to Make The Herald.

The Peoples Building and Loan association, of Minneapolis, one of the several so-called national concerns that have within the past year come into very bad repute, is attracting attention to itself by its peculiar methods in Duluth and West Duluth.

One of its members is Wm. Hurley, a well-known citizen of West Duluth. Hurley wanted to build at a cost of $3000 and was promised a loan by the Minneapolis concern. He paid $25 in advance to the agent, a man named Morris, and waited to hear from the loan. Morris has not been seen since. A day or two ago Mr. Hurley was informed by the Minneapolis office that he must pay in advance $20 for the examination of the abstract and other papers. This came to the ears of Attorney W. W. Brown, of West Duluth, and he is accordingly considering worked up over it. He says that he was retained by the association as their attorney in West Duluth and when he entered into contract with them it was stipulated that he should receive $5 for examining each abstract that did not have more than a certain number of transfers. He claims that he knew nothing about the Hurley deal. It is quite evident that the abstract should be examined by a lawyer who can have easy access to the records of the register's office for St. Louis county.

People who have money to entrust to loan associations should look into the records of such concerns. On June 30, 1890, the Peoples Building & Loan association, of Minneapolis, made a statement to the state bank examiner showing $42,751.02 of expense to $55,902.00 of receipts. Contrast this with the statement of one of the Duluth associations, which showed $389.00 of expense to $175,230.00 of receipts. The local associations are run for the benefit of the shareholders, while the nationals are run for the benefit of the officers. And yet people will continue to become victims of the latter.

PRESIDENT GUMPERS.

He Talks of the Work and Aims of His Order.

President Samuel Gumpers, of the American Federation of Labor, an association which now numbers about 700,000 members, arrived in Duluth yesterday afternoon and was received at the depot by selected representatives of the various trades unions and others.

Speaking to a Herald reporter today he said: "The labor movement is founded on justice and right, and so long its due is unheeded it will go onward and upward. We are against senseless strikes and heartily in favor of reasonable arbitration. We are, of course, in favor of the eight-hour day, which has been taken and we believe in enforcement of women and in temperance, but not in the prohibition method of 'blatant' temperance. We believe the eight-hour movement, started by us last year with the carpenters, will gain tremendously this year by the coal workers, who will together take up the fight. While in all places the carpenters were not successful a year ago, they gained in many and other lines of trade have also gained in hours of labor."

"I am very much pleased with the organization of the federated unions of Duluth and somewhat surprised at the advances made by them in union matters as well as in hours of labor. So far as I have seen on all my trip, which has taken in the country from coast to coast, and Mexico to Canada, no city pays better wages, all things considered, or has a greater appearance of prosperity than Duluth."

"My trip has had four chief reasons: to ally the feeling that seems to have taken possession of organized workmen—that they have been neglected by their leaders; to straighten out matters of the federation; to start a better acquaintance with the leaders of the movement for the betterment of the wage workers, and lastly to secure the financial support of the allied federation for the coke workers in their demand for an eight-hour day."

There was a meeting of the Newsboys union last night, addressed by Mr. Gumpers. He said he was only 14 years when he became a union man. He was the organizer of the National Cigar-makers union of America, and is over 41 years old, and during those twenty-seven years has never been outside of a union.

"The house of two papers in this city trying to take advantage of the printers. They want them to work under unjust conditions and for such wages that they cannot properly support themselves or their families, or do their duty as American citizens. The duty of every common sense boy is to stand up for himself. Do not play the sneak on one another, but be what boys should be—honest, honorable and manly. It is a matter of self protection. If these newspaper houses get the best of this struggle, you newsboys will feel the effects of it."

IN FEDERAL COURT.

A Personal Injury Case Against a Mill Company.

"Betie Anderson as administratrix of the estate of John R. Anderson, deceased, vs. the Fox-Wisdom Lumber company," is the title of a personal damage suit brought in the United States district court today to recover $10,000. The reason for bringing the suit in the federal court is that the plaintiff is a subject of the king of Sweden and Norway, and was also the plaintiff's intestate up to the time of his death.

The complaint alleges that on April 19, 1890, a piece of lumber was hurled by an edging machine in the mill of the defendant at Willow river. Fine county striking the plaintiff's intestate in the side with such force that he died within an hour. Anderson was a man 38 years old, and left besides his widow, two small daughters, Ellen and Betie, aged 2 years and 5½ months respectively. The fall on the part of the defendant to change the saws in the edger is alleged as the real cause of the fatality. Alexander & Alexander, of Minneapolis, are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

He is Not Insane.

A few days ago the police arrested a man from Grand Forks named E. O. Larson because he was acting in a demented manner. He was placed in the city jail to await an examination for insanity before Judge Ayer. He has, however, so fully recovered that an examination will be unnecessary, and he will accordingly be set free today. When arrested he had on his person a check on the State bank for $50.

DISOBEYED ORDERS.

And Rolled Down a Bank Under His Engine.

Superintendent Copeland, of the St. Paul & Duluth, arrived here this morning and at once took his departure for Fond du Lac to make an attempt to raise the engine which rolled down the embankment Wednesday afternoon, by which accident engineer William Carey broke a leg. Mr. Copeland gave an account of how the accident happened, which account severely reflects on the engineer.

It seems that Carey had been doing some switching at Fond du Lac when three telegraph linemen came along on their way up the old track to Thomson. Carey without orders, undertook to give them a ride up the hill over a track that has for two years been abandoned and over which an engine is never allowed to run without having a gang of section men precede it. How far the engineer was going up the track the superintendent does not know, but when he had proceeded some distance the wheels were thrown off the track by an ice formation and the engine rolled down a steep embankment. The three telegraph men and fireman escaped uninjured. It is safe to say that Engineer Carey's connection with the St. Paul & Duluth is ended.

An Important Move.

There was a meeting of some two dozen jobbers yesterday afternoon with a view to organizing for mutual benefit. D. G. Cutler acted as chairman. A committee consisting of Messrs. May, Crawford and Prindle, was chosen to draft a constitution and bylaws for the proposed union. One of the main objects of the union will be to see to it that the railroads give fair and equitable rates in all directions. At present there is nothing to complain of in this way as Duluth jobbers are in many instances on an equal footing with St. Paul and Minneapolis jobbers and in some instances far ahead. The formation of the union means that hereafter Duluth jobbers will have a fair chance at the great business offered in the Northwest.

The Warm Weather Against the Dives. Chief of Police Briggs, of West Duluth, who has just been reapointed for another year on account of very meritorious service, informs The Herald that the keepers of the notorious dives between St. Louis and New Duluth are preparing to decamp because the ice will afford them a foundation for their shacks. But a few days longer. The people in this vicinity will hear this news with pleasure, for the dives were about the worst resorts in this part of the Northwest. Had the Wisconsin authorities co-operated with those of Minnesota they would not have been allowed to remain on the state boundary so long as has been the case.

All money deposited in Peoples Savings bank before April 4 draws interest from the first of the month.

A Young Girl's Grief

Of malaria fever are not to be counteracted by quinine with any degree of certainty, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of diseases of a miasmatic type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preservative efficacy in the fine botanical medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloids, drugs and poisons which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague and bilious remittent. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of energy, and is not only a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

It now looks as if the arrangements to have the celebrated layman, W. W. Whitney of Boston, come here to participate in the grand musical festival at which the Messiah is to be sung would fall through. Mr. Whitney offered to come for $250. As it would take him a week to come and go, it is easy to see that Mr. Whitney is very modest.

General Manager Jefferson informs The Herald that Representative Kendall has introduced in the house a little bill that has occupied the notice of most people. It is to provide for a janitor for the new county jail in this city.

TALKS AS TO WAR.

Secretary of War Proctor interviewed by an astrospheric Reporter in Los Angeles.

What This Little Smoke Cloud May do in the Way of Increasing Protection.

Detective O'Malley Returns to New Orleans and is Indicted on Many Counts.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 3.—In an interview here today Secretary of War Proctor expressed the opinion that the present controversy between Italy and the United States would end in smoke. The outcome of it, however, he thought, would be to better our coast defense and increase our naval facilities, as congress would now undoubtedly see the necessity of a good navy and proper coast defense.

The secretary further said: "The 17-inch guns carried by the large Italian war ships I consider as somewhat of an experiment. They rack the ship, and without reference to their use on board ship, they are short-lived. After guns reach a certain size the internal surface is very great and the immense explosive power is likely to injure or break them. The most serviceable of the large guns are the 8, 10 and 12-inch.

In addition to the new gun factory the last congress made an appropriation of $4,000,000 for the purchase of large guns manufactured by private concerns. That will furnish us with no large pieces. New York is not without a considerable degree of protection, as we have quite an efficient torpedo service. With the advent of the heavily armored ships of late years, great improvements have been made in mortar service. It is surprising with what accuracy mortars can be fired to great height and shots are dropped straight down on the object aimed at. It is remarkable how many shots will drop down upon a spot no larger than the deck of a ship, which cannot be moved in the slightest. One of these mortar shells will drop through any ship and sink it.

MANY COUNTS.

Detective O'Malley Appears and is Indicted.

NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—Private Detective O'Malley appeared before the criminal court this morning. He was indicted for perjury, conspiracy to commit perjury and accessory before the fact in an attempt to bribe a juror. He was accompanied by Lionel Adams, his attorney, and James Barry, a prominent local politician. O'Malley was released on $3000 bond which was signed by Barry. After his release O'Malley was taken to the jail alone as if he had never been in danger from the fury of a mob. He declines to talk.

THE NAVAL FIASCO.

No Danger to America From the Italian Navy.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Charles H. Cramp, the head of the great shipbuilding firm here, says New York is in no danger from the Italian ironclads. "They'll never come here," he said confidently. "In the first place they are not big enough to make such a voyage and, they could find no place here to coal. Their great draught would make it impossible for them to do much damage on this side. They are not familiar with our coast and would be in constant danger of grounding. "They carry very heavy guns, but, except for firing on a city these guns are not effective over a mile and the cruisers recently constructed could be very effective by lying about the monitors and peppering them with long range cannons and drawing them into shallow water. "It would be impossible to build a navy any faster than we are doing. The navy is four vessels under construction in our yards, two cruisers and two battle ships, but they cannot be completed much inside of three years. When completed these battle ships, although not quite as heavy as those of Italian navy, will be superior in every respect. "The Vesuvius is the only dynamite cruiser in the world, and if she could drop one of her dandy shells aboard an Italian ironclad she would, from the latter would be over."

TROOPS THERE.

Regiments of Troops Appear at Greenwood Cokes Works.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Pa., April 3.—At midnight yesterday the entire Tenth regiment, including its staff, being on the ground. Two companies of the Eighteenth regiment arrived at 10:30 this morning. Twenty thousand rounds of ammunition were sent to Greensburg yesterday which will be distributed among the troops on arrival there.

The coke region represents a scene of desolation this morning; no work at all is being done from Scottsdale to Mt. Pleasant and very little from there to Bradford. The introduction of two regiments of National guards has allayed the excitement.

A GALE HANGING.

ANAPOLIS, Md., April 3.—Ernest Forbes, the 18-year-old colored man who assaulted Miss Bertha B. Phipps, a white girl, last November, was hanged here this morning. Forbes made a short speech on the scaffold, in which he said he was sorry for his crime and ready to die. The town presented a bright appearance and all incoming trains brought in great crowds of country people.

After the Dago.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., April 3.—Two attempts to wreck trains on the Baltimore & Ohio, made within the past few days, were detected in time to prevent loss of life. A large depot and store building at Constitution was blown up by dynamite. All these crimes are charged on the Italians in the neighborhood, the people believing they are avenging their countrymen by the destruction of property.

PARNELL DEFEATED.

His Candidate Boston Badly at Silgo by Voters.

SILGO, April 3.—The election to fill the seat in parliament of the northern division of Silgo, made vacant by the death of the late member, Peter McDonald, resulted in the selection of Mr. Bernard Collier, of Silgo, the McCarthyite candidate, who received a majority of 4500 over his opponent, Mr. Valentine B. Dillon, Jr., of Dublin, the candidate of the Parnellites.

The vote as announced by official count shows Mr. Collier to have polled 3196 votes and Mr. Dillon 2390.

In a speech at Newcastle J. F. X. O'Brien, M. P., said that "Parnell must never again be allowed to handle the flag that he has disgraced."

Portugal's Finances.

NEW YORK, April 3.—A report was current today that Capt. Algier Sartoris, husband of Nellie Grant, the only daughter of Gen. Grant, was dead.

Notwithstanding this, she moves in the highest social circles of the country, is a welcome visitor at Marlborough house, frequently dining with the Victors and holds the most intimate relations toward her husband's family.

MUNICIPAL GIFT.

Kemble Gives a Sum to the Methodist Church.

WOODBURY, N. J., April 3.—One hundred thousand dollars is the sum that has just been transferred from the bank account of William H. Kemble of Philadelphia to the exchequer of the First Methodist church of this city.

It will be noticed that there is an increase in the cost of inspection over the previous year. This increase is due to subdividing the work into smaller contracts. There were more contracts in operation, while the total cost of work done was $154,000 less than the previous year.

An important change made from the practice of previous years in street work is in constructing streets with a gravel surface, which it was believed would in the future be paved, so that the surface is not liable to be washed away.

It is desired to pave these streets the paving can be done without disturbing the granite curbs which will be made more very compact, making a good foundation. Continued experience with stone gutters and storm sewers has shown that the wooden gutters has proved the wisdom of the change, and the wooden gutter is doomed.

There were 89,300 square yards of paving laid the year as compared with 49,800 the previous year, all of it being cedar block pavement. Experience has gone to show that on grades between 4 and 13 per cent the best available pavement is smooth cedar blocks, interspaces being filled with gravel. It is very important that the surface water be kept on top of the pavement on grades exceeding 12 per cent, and on level streets it is almost imperative that a concrete foundation be used. The damage occasioned by the slightest accumulation of water under wood pavement cost more to repair than the interest would amount to on the cost of concrete foundation.

The use of tar on wood pavements was entirely dispensed with. On levels and slight grades, the gravel soon works loose between the interspaces of the blocks making an impervious roadway. On steep grades, the tar and gravel makes a more impervious filling. From the fact that the life of any pavement is largely dependent upon the life of its foundation and as the surface of our streets is a clay which causes the customary three inches of sand to be an insufficient foundation most of the pavement connected this year has been laid on a Telford foundation. Such a foundation has the advantage over concrete, which has been used on our best business streets of having every portion of the sub-grade thoroughly consolidated.

There have been 3.2 miles of sanitary sewer laid, and 2.1 miles of storm water sewer constructed, as against 3.7 miles and 2.9 the previous year, making a total of 19.1 miles of sanitary sewers and 8.1 miles of storm sewers now in operation. Several new designs have been introduced into storm sewers. The "delta" sewer has been used frequently on steep grades in place of the vitrified pipe surrounded with concrete. Where pipe laid in concrete has been used, all inlets have been provided with catch basins to keep debris from the sewers.

During the year there has been 160 crosswalks and 12.8 miles of sidewalks laid. There are now in the city 785 wooden crosswalks exclusive of crosswalks formed in the surface of paved streets and 60.3 miles of wooden sidewalks.

The maintenance of streets was in July placed under the charge of the engineering department in so far as it related to the keeping of accounts and records. As a year has not yet elapsed, and as the accounts of the first month are not very full, I have been unable to present much comparative data. Paved streets have been kept clean by a sweeper at a cost of about sixty cents per 1000 square yards of street swept, or about $20 per mile.

Maintenance of sewers is administered through a foreman and an average crew of six men. The principal cause of trouble is the presence of large amounts of debris thrown into streets by property owners, which clogs the entrance to storm sewers during heavy storms. Repairs and cleaning of sewers have cost $2215.38. The sewer gang not being employed all the time, and it being necessary to keep men continuously at hand, this gang has been kept in repairing paved streets over trenches excavated by gas corporations. This has cost $290.17, $2712.49 of which

A YEAR'S STREETS.

Duluth's City Engineer Makes His Annual Report to the Board of Works.

Cost of the Work Done and Superintendence and Improvements Made in Method.

A Number of Recommendations Made as to the Future Conduct of the Department.

Today the report of the city engineer for the year ending with February was filed. It contains the following:

The work of taking preliminary levels for proper planning of sewer and street grades in advance of improvements has been continued at a cost of $1712.78. The survey of the city and the setting of monuments to mark the lines of streets has progressed at a cost of $1022.23. During the year there have been 101 petitions or orders for improvement investigated and reported upon against 100 of last year. The approximate estimates of the cost of said improvements were as follows:

	1890-91	1890-91
Grading	$18,950	$18,950
Paving	$13,575.00	$13,575.00
Storm water sewers	$2,115.53	$2,115.53
Sidewalks	$3,133.50	$3,133.50

Total $38,674.03 $38,674.03

Cost of engineering on $1,781.91

Percentage cost of superintendence, 20.00 of 1 per cent for 1890-91 and 2.00 of 1 per cent for 1890-91.

In addition $219 was spent in making an examination for a proposed tunnel under the city canal.

One hundred and five contracts were in operation during the year as against eighty-one during the previous year. A comparison of the total cost is as follows:

	1890-91	1890-91
Graded streets	$18,950	$18,950
Paved streets	$13,575.00	$13,575.00
Storm water sewers	$2,115.53	$2,115.53
Sidewalks and crosswalks	$3,133.50	$3,133.50

Total $38,674.03 $38,674.03

Cost of staking and setting $1,781.91

Cost of inspecting work $1,781.91

Percentage cost of engineering, 2.01 p. c.

Percentage cost of inspecting work, 2.31 p. c.

Percentage cost of staking and setting, 1.80 p. c.

It will be noticed that there is an increase in the cost of inspection over the previous year. This increase is due to subdividing the work into smaller contracts.

There were more contracts in operation, while the total cost of work done was $154,000 less than the previous year.

ATHLETIC GROUNDS.

The Y. M. C. A. to Arrange Permanent Outdoor Playgrounds.

The Y. M. C. A. has another enterprise in view which ranks next in importance to that of securing a new home. It is intended if possible to obtain a lot to be used as athletic grounds, on which will be placed apparatus for all appropriate outdoor sports. The grounds must be large enough to contain a quarter-mile cinder track, tennis courts, baseball diamond and football field. Among other apparatus will be that for pole vaulting, hammer throwing, shot putting, high jumping, etc., and more as the case may demand.

Two or three locations are being investigated, but as yet nothing has been decided upon. It is hoped to have the grounds ready for field day, which takes place some time in May.

Affecting Terminals.

Two cars of St. Paul & Duluth and Northern Pacific officials arrived in town this morning. The gentlemen were: General Manager Plough, Assistant General Manager Miller and Land Commissioner Clarke of the St. Paul & Duluth, and General Manager Kimberly, General Freight Agent Moore, Superintendent of Motive Power Small, Master Car Builder Barstons, Chief Engineer, Samuel F. Dodge, and Messrs. Hickey and Conisley of the Northern Pacific. A Mr. Simpson also accompanied Mr. Plough.

The trip was made chiefly for the inspection of terminal facilities at Duluth and to look over viaduct matters. At 9 o'clock they all took the train for New Duluth in company with J. W. Norton, general manager of the New Duluth Land company, in order to decide on switch tracks for the Hurd Refrigerator company and other details for the accommodation of Duluth's progressive suburb.

Bale Gets Judgment.

Judge Emigh today gave judgment for the defendant Bale for the dismissal of the complaint on its merits in the case of John B. Farrell vs. James Bale, the Diamond Prospecting company and Louis Cyr. This means that Farrell is defeated as against all three defendants, as the last two were only indirectly connected with the case. The suit has been pending over a year, and was brought to recover $18,000 paid to Bale on a contract to expend $25,000 in developing a mine on the Vermilion range.

The Gas Was Too Much for Him.

A negro, black as a coal and considerably over six feet high, came hurrying down from Dennis McNelly's office at 2 p. m. today. When in front of Pantan & Watson's shoe department he dropped on the sidewalk in a heap and bellowed like a child. The poor fellow was in bad straits, and after great difficulty it was ascertained by the crowd which had collected that he had taken gas in order to have a tooth pulled and the gas was too much for him. His name is Will Brent and he is bartender for Victor Berggren. He was taken to his room in a hospital.

Will Have 400 Students.

Professor Henry Colin returned to Chicago today. He thinks that he will have fully 400 students at his summer school here this season, the same as in the summer school in the country. Fully 400 students will come from outside, Mr. Colin says. The professor says that the greatest difficulty is to obtain a big place for the students.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The Herald is at present published under decidedly unfavorable circumstances and with totally inadequate press facilities which accounts for the lateness of delivery during the past week. Arrangements are in progress and are being perfected with the utmost speed possible, which will give The Herald all the facilities necessary for the publication of a first-class metropolitan newspaper, and it will then reach all subscribers in ample time.

PUT THE FACTS.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons, the distinguished Roman Catholic archbishop of Baltimore, in a long and interesting article in the North American Review for April, thus discourses:

The economic conditions in the United States are fast approaching those of England. The houses of the poor are more marked by destitution and squalor; the light of heaven is being closed out from miserable tenement room and attic; flesh and blood are becoming more cheap and bread more dear; the wellbeing of the car horse is more solicitously watched than that of the driver. Small wonder that strong men, maddened by the tears of wife and cries of starving children, brand themselves together and sometimes resort to deeds of violence.

With all due deference to a noted prelate The Herald says, stuff. What may be the case in Rome, England or in Baltimore we know not, but we do not believe that in any American city are the conditions such as the archbishop describes. There is a good deal of pessimism in the world, but there is a vast amount more of well grounded optimism, on the part of those who believe the world is growing better, the rich more charitable, the poor better able to secure luxuries, and the administration of laws more just. The statement that flesh and blood are becoming more cheap and bread more dear, conflicts with the information we get about the rates of wages and the prices of provisions. That "strong men, maddened by the tears of wife and cries of starving children," may be true, but such cases are rare, especially in America, and are the result of false locations more than of evil conditions.

The poor in this country are poor, to be sure, but they are by no means the wretched creatures he supposes them to be; they are very much better off than they ever were before in the history of the world; and their condition is steadily improving, though in the nature of things, and as it has been from the beginning of society, this improvement is gradual and not spasmodic.

A NORTHWESTERN OUTING.

More and more the hunting and fishing in districts about Lake Superior are becoming famed. By constantly increasing crowds—more the pity—the sportsman of the East and South are invading our local demesne and trailing the fly or stalking the deer that we of the Lake Superior country have so long fondly and selfishly hoped could be saved for our own pleasure.

John Talman, night editor of the Pioneer Press, in a dainty and beautifully illustrated article in the April Outing, tells of a fishing jaunt along the lines of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic road in a way that is most interesting. But while it is pleasant to read of these trips into a heretofore land unknown, there comes with the pleasure the sense of regret that publicity gives. No true lover of the woods but feels his own heart laid bare when his favorite haunts, secreted by distance and toilsome ways, are opened to all. But such is the way of the world, and if we could choose we would want no happier expounder, no brighter nor more delightful courier than Outing.

The South Shore's district is but a small part of the glorious domain of the dweller in the Northwest—happily for the future we have many places still unknown.

THE WEST VS. THE EAST.

The congress of the Western states, which is to meet at Kansas City April 15, and to which Duluth's chamber of commerce has delegated an official representative, is to consider "the great questions that now confront the Western people, to the total exclusion of Eastern issues."

This congress is to include representatives from the legislatures and commercial bodies of the states west of the Mississippi and Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Alabama and Mississippi.

The congress is to be in session a week, a rather short time in which to differentiate Western questions from Eastern issues, as it is rather a puzzling thing for most people to tell where an Eastern issue leaves off and a Western question begins.

The program of the congress rather squints at an organization of the Western and Southern free-coinage sentiment. Such a semblance in the past have usually fired off a platform and gone home to be forgotten.

There may be "questions that confront the Western people to the total exclusion of Eastern issues," but The Herald would like to have them pointed out. Is silver one? Are the interests of the farmer referred to? Is inflated paper or the demands of the alliance in the list? We think not. It behooves the delegates to this conference to be men of wisdom or there may arise a little sectional bitterness, with no settlement of either Eastern or Western questions.

SEEN AND HEARD.

My friend the doctor has just returned from Chicago, where he says the ravages of grip are fearful, the death rate being nearly 100 a day on the average. For the last two days of his stay 33 people died, half of them from pneumonia and kindred diseases. "I have studied this grip carefully," said he to me, "and I find some little facts that appear to have escaped general note here. People are attacked in much the same way they were two years ago, but more harshly, and after a few days the trouble develops into what we would have called lung fever in earlier years, and carries off those it can. It seems to me it is nothing more or less than brain fever. Grip is more terrible over this grip than Duluth ever was over typhoid and with good reason. The death rate there is an average of 10 to the 100 population. People are petitioning the authorities to build fires in the streets, to discharge cannon and other detonators, to do almost anything, they know not what."

"There is a good deal to be said in favor of cleanliness," said the returned traveler, "but there is also something to be said in favor of dirt. It is the dirt that makes Italy so charming. And if you go into the lower back streets of its cities, and watch the swarms of children at their play, you will agree that their dirt is a positive charm. A grimy face with a pair of big eyes and a laughing mouth, a soiled and tattered shawl, a pair of stout, brown legs with stockings of another earth upon them, have made up many a picture of hearty enjoyment, and for hearty enjoyment that long and effective application of the best brand of soap could not begin to make."

The current of the labor movement which has been idling along sluggishly for more than six months is beginning to show indications of the approach of May 1. There are many signs of activity among the trades unions, and laboring men are beginning anew to consider their situation and their desires. Employers are waiting anxiously for the building trades to take action, for this branch of labor affects the public more directly than almost any other. There is a full in building operations just now and it is too early to tell just what will be done on May 1.

CORINNE.

Seven or eight years ago Corinne was a very pretty little girl of ten summers, and made for herself quite a reputation as an actress. As the years have rolled on she has not progressed as rapidly as people might expect, and she consequently proves to be a star whose capabilities are very limited. It is safe to say that under the management of anyone else than her mother Corinne would rank only as a fairly clever chorus girl. The chorus that appeared last evening in a burlesque on "Carmen" before a crowded house was quite good and proved to be one of the best features of the entertainment.

Mr. Charles Fostelle, who impersonated "Fichelo" and Messrs. Sturges and Williams, who appeared as the smugglers, furnished most of the fun. Mr. Bernard Dyllyn responded to entreaties of the audience, and aroused considerable enthusiasm over his character songs. Harry and Ella Bonnelle introduced a very entertaining feature in a sort of Funch and Judy show, but no amount of applauding could get them back. The evening was brilliant and ended with much toward making of the entertainment a fair success.

Glee and Banjo.

The special Pullman palace car which carries the University of Wisconsin Glee and Banjo clubs will arrive tomorrow. Great anticipations have been aroused, and it is reasonably certain that a packed house will greet them. "Bug" Main, who leads the Banjo club with such brilliancy, has been recently approached with an offer to act as emcee in the biggest minstrel organization in the country, but as the gentleman is only in the business for the fun of it and the good of his college, he has declined the flattering offer. The concert promises to be the biggest success of the season. Both clubs are stronger by far than ever before.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The attention of Chief McQuade is respectfully called to three yelling, howling car mastiffs belonging to a house situated just east of First avenue east on Fifth street. There has been quite a good deal of sickness within two or three blocks of the corner, and during the past month these howling curs have been making the nights a burden to those living in the neighborhood. Of malaria fever are not to be considered as being due to any degree of contagion, or for any length of time. The eradication and prevention of diseases of a malarial type are, however, ascertained possibilities. Long experience has shown that there is infinitely more preventive efficacy in the fine botanic medicine, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, than in the alkaloidal drugs, quinine, which were formerly the only recognized means of removing and anticipating attacks of fever and ague, and malarial miasmata. When the system has been depleted by periodically recurring paroxysms, this agreeable restorative renews the fund of vitality, and is not a positive specific, but repairs the damage to the general health inflicted by all febrile complaints partaking of the malarial character.

Why let the little ones suffer with malarial fever when twenty-five cents will buy a bottle of Salford Oil?

THE HURD REFRIGERATOR COMPANY has put in the foundations of their immense plant. The size of the buildings are: One 85 feet x 480 feet. One 55 feet x 350 feet. Besides engine and boiler houses and dry kiln.

Work was begun last week by B. B. Richards, late president of the Dubuque National Bank, of Dubuque, Iowa, one of the largest furniture plants in the world; also on his Hard Wood Finishing Factory and on his Saw Mill, the capacity of which will be 20,000,000 feet per annum.

These, with four other industries, that are already contracted for, insure for NEW DULUTH a population of 10,000 people inside of SIXTEEN MONTHS.

Ten months ago the NEW DULUTH LAND COMPANY was organized, today work has begun on the EIGHTH plant. No wonder that lots in New Duluth are good property, and all those who bought at the opening sale, October 28th, 1890, have made money.

A most exasperating nuisance has existed for several weeks at police headquarters and it seems strange that such a state of affairs has been allowed to continue. Somewhere in front a leak has occurred in a gas main and the fluid has penetrated the soil and entered the building. At times the smell of gas is almost unbearable and it was only after repeated kicks that the gas and water company has attempted to find the break.

Mr. LaSalle, wife of Capt. F. N. LaSalle, of the vessel firm of LaSalle & Wolvin, died yesterday in Chicago, where she has been some time. She had been in some months. Mrs. LaSalle leaves many warm friends in Duluth, who sympathize with her husband and her three bright children.

S. R. Hughes, of Chicago, who is accompanied by his wife, arrived at the St. Louis today. He will act as local agent for the American Express company, for which corporation he has worked in an important capacity for many years. The marriage of Frank Schweiger, of the firm of Schweiger & Connors, and Miss Alice Brewster, a well known and promising young lady Duluth, will take place sometime in May.

THE CITY HALL FUS.

Still Some Talk on the Westway-Fuller Imbroglio.

"I would much prefer an investigation by any of the council than," said Mayor Davis, speaking of the controversy over the maintenance of streets by the department of the city engineer, referred to in an extensive in The Herald last week. "It was intended that the expense should be limited to $150 per month, or in round numbers, about what it cost to maintain the Superintendent Westway under the old regime. Westway was given the use of a horse and buggy, which, of course, made his salary run up a little higher. The two foremen now receive $75 per month each, which will make it just about an even thing. As to any changes contemplated by City Engineer Fuller, I know nothing whatever. If there are any it surely ought to be known, and I believe Fuller wouldn't object either. I have the same interest in the matter that any citizen has, and would advise any alderman to vote for an investigation if it is evident there is any needed."

City Engineer Fuller, when seen by a reporter, was not inclined to say much. "I look upon the whole matter," said he, "as coming from an official who has lost his position and feels sore over it. There have been three investigations since I went into office, and nothing came of it. I did not intend to compare Glasgow with Duluth in the matter of street maintenance, but only meant to cite Glasgow as an example where much saving has been accomplished by placing street maintenance in charge of skilled officials. As to expense will be reduced by the present method."

A Progressive Road.

"The Northwestern Line," Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway, always looking after the comforts of its patrons, and endeavoring to secure the best service for Duluth and the people at the head of the lakes, has taken another step in advance of its competitors. Commencing the 10th of March, two new sleepers will be placed on the Duluth-Chicago run. The Wagner vestibule buffet sleeper "Belgrade" and the Pullman car "Maywood."

These cars are handsomely fitted up, models of the car builders' art and in addition to all the latest improvements are equipped with the celebrated Finlay glass. These cars run on the Chicago limited, the finest and fastest train between Duluth and all points East via Chicago. This train, leaving Duluth daily via "The Northwestern Line," at 4:30 p. m., arrives at Milwaukee, 7:25 a. m.; Chicago, 9 a. m.

THE MARKETS.

Duluth Wheat, New York Money, Other Financial Notes.

A decided change took place in the local market today. The opening was weak, and before the downward current was checked prices dropped badly. The weakness was caused by lower cables, fine weather and better crop news from the Southwest and the general hammering prices. New York reported nineteen loads taken for export, ten of which are loading out for Lisbon. Reports of a still worse crop outlook in France were circulated, while the English stocks are said to be nearly exhausted.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, April 6.—There was a grand rush to sell wheat at the opening of change this morning. Longs began to realize the weakness of their position and were selling as fast as they could. Arbit Day.

Governor Merriam has issued the following proclamation: "The interest of the American people in beautifying and improving their cities, and in the prevailing custom of setting apart a day to be given to planting trees, shrubs and vines. For this purpose I designate Friday, May 1, as Arbor day, and I cordially recommend that as far as practicable this be recognized as a holiday to be given to tree planting. I especially recommend the observance of this day to parents and teachers. I suggest, further, that in every town and city in the state some public place be planted with trees, and that in commemoration of those who died in defense of their country."

Chances.

Of all men on the earth, the American is the most hopeful, energetic and self-reliant. As he would phrase it, he is a "hostler," and all he wants is a chance. But the United States is now, more than ever, a country of great chances and great opportunities, not alone in the West, but South and Southwest. The Mississippi valley, the Rocky Mountain region, the golden Pacific Coast and the sunny plains of the South, are full of chances for ambitious young men, who are not afraid to work hard. To visit any of these sections of our country, "The Burlington" has long been the favorite route, reaching as it does the most important points in all of the best states and territories in the center of the continent, and by connecting lines being the short and direct route to all points, from Puget Sound to the Gulf of Mexico. Wherever you think of going, apply first for tickets to some agent of "The Burlington" or write for information to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. St. Paul, Minn.

The Furniture Plant will Employ 250 Men.

The HURD REFRIGERATOR COMPANY has put in the foundations of their immense plant. The size of the buildings are: One 85 feet x 480 feet One 55 feet x 350 feet. Besides engine and boiler houses and dry kiln.

Work was begun last week by B. B. Richards, late president of the Dubuque National Bank, of Dubuque, Iowa, one of the largest furniture plants in the world; also on his Hard Wood Finishing Factory and on his Saw Mill, the capacity of which will be 20,000,000 feet per annum.

These, with four other industries, that are already contracted for, insure for NEW DULUTH a population of 10,000 people inside of SIXTEEN MONTHS.

Ten months ago the NEW DULUTH LAND COMPANY was organized, today work has begun on the EIGHTH plant. No wonder that lots in New Duluth are good property, and those who bought at the opening sale, October 28th, 1890, have made money.

HUNDREDS IN LINE.

Many Filers at Ashland Contract Dismisses From Which They May Die.

But Death is No Object Compared to $6000 in Standing Pine Timber.

Nearly 300 Hours Yet to be Endured Before the Land Office Opens.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 7.—[Special to The Herald.]—The Ashland land office is the center of a mob, it is fairly besieged, though the 100 acres of pine land will not be thrown open for entry until April 17-240 hours distant. There are now fully 600 hardy woodsmen decked in their various-colored Mackinaw suits, standing one behind the other in a line that extends half around the block. The front man in the line—Ed. Mercer—has been at the receiver's window, since last Friday, and he promises to beat the Detroit men who are trying to see who can keep awake the longest. There is a prize in store for Mercer if he holds out, and he probably will, for those in the line immediately around him have made an agreement to stand by each other, against the gang further in the rear. In this way they can steal a nap now and then.

Mercer's prize is all picked out, and is a tract of pine that will bring him at least $6000. Others close behind him have their selections made, and will get land and timber worth as much. The men tried to get in line as long ago as last Thursday, but were driven off by Chief Hayes and his officers, but the crowd multiplied wonderfully by Friday night, and it was then found to be useless to try to keep the determined land-seekers back.

There is much dissatisfaction because several city officials hold good positions. They were among the first to object to the opening of the line until Friday. They tried to get in line as long ago as last Thursday, but were driven off by Chief Hayes and his officers, but the crowd multiplied wonderfully by Friday night, and it was then found to be useless to try to keep the determined land-seekers back.

The exposure that these men must be subjected to will surely result in sickness in many cases. A few have signs of pneumonia, but a prospective reward is too strong to frighten them away. An argument of physicians or others has any effect. The prospect of getting something for nothing is too bright for men who have never seen a dollar in their lives. A few dollars at a time. "I am sure that many of the foolish fellows will either die or go mad before the time is up. Others near him, whose chances of money-making are just as good, have had high offers. There are about 622 claims in the 100,000 acres and there are men enough in line now to file on all this, while many more are coming daily. Probably half the 622 claims are valueless, and probably 100 of them are worth at least $1000 each.

Mining Conference.

Employers and Employees Will Discuss Matters of Much Interest.

Pittsboro, Pa., April 7.—An important conference of miners and mine operators opened here today for the purpose of consulting upon the question of wages and other matters. The near approach of the time when, by resolution of the miners in the convention held in Columbus last month, the eight hour day is to be enforced, makes the outcome of the joint gathering today of the greatest importance.

When the eight hour program was first adopted it was thought that there would not be much opposition to it, but the latter have manifested a decided inclination to resist. The miners of Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois are represented in the conference.

To Manufacture Mining Machinery. Seneca, Pa., April 7.—President Harrison's son-in-law, Mr. J. McKee, has been elected president of the McKee Electric Manufacturing company, of this city, and the concern, which is strongly backed by the Thomson-Houston, proposes to engage extensively in the manufacture of electric mining apparatus, for which there promises to be a great demand within a short time in the anthracite coal fields of Pennsylvania.

Mr. McKee enters the Wrightman company as one of the representatives of the Thomson-Houston interests, the other representatives of the same interest being R. M. Byllesby, O. T. Crosby and Winthrop Coffin. Messrs. Lathrop R. Bacon and J. B. Newcomb, of New York and the Hon. Alfred Hand and Col. Geo. Sanderson, of Seneca, were directed recently from the directory to make way for these gentlemen.

Heavy Frosts in the South. Washington, April 7.—The signal office furnishes the following bulletin to the press: The condition of unusually low temperature mentioned in the special bulletin of yesterday is prevailing over Northern Florida and Southern Georgia has moved southward and this morning extends over the whole of the Florida peninsula, producing, except in the northern portion, the coldest weather ever known there at this season of the year. The minimum temperatures at Titusville, Tampa, Jupiter and Key West were 34, 38, 35 and 54 degrees respectively, being from 7 to 14 degrees lower than any previous record during April. Killing frosts occurred this morning as far south as Jupiter Inlet, and it is probable that early frosts will be experienced in this section have been severely injured.

Wedding Presents Stolen. Springfield, Ill., April 7.—The residence of Rev. Frederick Clappett, a popular Episcopal clergyman of this city, was entered by burglars yesterday morning and robbed of silver plate and jewelry valued at $1200. Many of the articles taken were wedding presents.

POLITICAL QUINCY.

National Importance of the Chicago Elections Today.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Chicago is engaged today in one of the warmest municipal struggles in her entire history. There are five candidates in the field, De Witt C. Crozier, democrat, present mayor, and candidate for re-election; Carter H. Harrison, democrat, four times mayor of Chicago; Hiram Washburne, straight republican; Elmer Washburne, republican, citizens' committee and prohibition candidate; and County Morgan, socialist, socialist and labor candidate. It is the first time in the municipal contests of Chicago that the voters have been given an opportunity to decide between five men.

The result is problematical. Crozier, candidate for re-election, has a record of having made the worst mayor of any man ever elected to that position. Clannishness has permeated the whole of the city departments, gambling has flourished as never before, wide-open saloons day and night, have been the rule and drink shops have been allowed to plant themselves side by side with public schools and churches. Crime, too, has flourished to an appalling extent. Strenuous efforts were made not many months ago by a large number of reputable citizens, including the publisher of nearly every daily paper in the city, to induce the incumbent of the mayor's chair to officially preserve the bare semblance of decency in the administration of the municipal government, but their counsel fell upon deaf ears and the character and nature of their suggestions were placed in nomination by a large and representative convention of bankers, professional and business men who had become appalled at the moral demoralization of the city and who are satisfied that with his record as an advocate of decayed government, his election would result in the purification of Chicago.

Morgan, the red-flag and socialist candidate, will poll the full strength of his party and is in nomination by a large and representative convention of bankers, professional and business men who had become appalled at the moral demoralization of the city and who are satisfied that with his record as an advocate of decayed government, his election would result in the purification of Chicago.

The Pope on Ireland.

Rome, April 7.—Today at a reception given to the college of cardinals the pope asked Archbishop Walsh for information as to the political and religious situation in England. The holy father expressed himself as greatly pleased with the results of the recent Anglo election, and spoke with pleasure and admiration of the united front of the Irish bishops. He also pronounced himself to be in entire sympathy with the people of Ireland, and added that he hoped they would maintain confidence in themselves and in their country in spite of existing difficulties.

Negroes Organizing.

Waco, Texas, April 7.—A number of colored men here today for the purpose of forming a local branch of the American Citizens Equal Rights association. The proposed movement is to appeal from political races to a national and organic law of the land and to the justice of the American people for the distribution of impartial justice to every American citizen irrespective of race. Up to today Organizer Downs has been the solitary advocate of the movement.

That Famous Cow Case.

GOSHEN, Ind., April 7.—The supreme court yesterday decided the case of the lower court in the famous De Kalb county cow case, which was tried in this city on a change of venue. A farmer brought suit against Lake Shore road to recover value for a cow killed by a locomotive. The jury decided against him and gave the railroad a verdict of $5 and costs, it being alleged that the company's locomotive had been damaged that much by collision with the cow.

Alimony Case Decided.

OSKOSH, Wis., April 7.—The case of O. Evans and Frederick Fekum of Minneapolis, vs. Mrs. Miriam Kempster was decided in favor of the latter yesterday. The defendant is the widow of Dr. Kempster, the great insanity expert. She enjoys an alimony of $1000 a year, and this the plaintiffs have attacked under an alleged assignment.

Pity Poor Parkersburg.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., April 7.—The ravages of typhoid fever and grip continue. Five funerals occurred today, and three more deaths were reported during the day. Reports from different parts of this county and from adjacent counties, and from the other side of the Ohio, show that one person in ten is sick with one of these diseases.

Boston Sparring Match.

Boston, April 7.—Robert Burns, of Providence, and Jack Fitzpatrick, of Liverpool, will spar for $6000 at the rooms of the Ajax club tonight. The men will fight at 118 pounds. The Englishman was imported to meet Jimmy Griffin, but the latter was matched against Ike Weir before Fitzpatrick's arrival.

South American Gold.

Buenos Aires, April 7.—Yesterday gold closed at 222 per cent premium. Adapted to the wants of all, Peoples Savings bank of Duluth.

BAD COMBINATION.

Many Riotous Strikers and Dynamite Together are Not at All Agreeable.

The Most Serious Trouble Yet is Feared For Morewood Coke Works Soon.

Men Return to Work Today in Increased Numbers Under Military Protection.

PITTSBURGH, April 7.—This morning the report was abroad at Mount Pleasant that the strikers have in their possession large quantities of dynamite, and a physician just reported to headquarters that he was informed by a local labor leader that the strikers would use the dynamite if it became necessary.

It is believed that the strikers are able to take desperate measures to carry their point, and a great deal of apprehension is felt in military circles. The military officers, however, think that they would not have much show against the strikers if the latter resorted to explosives, and they admit that the damage that could be done could not be estimated. Inspector of Rifle Practice Litchfield has reported that a local dealer in dynamite stated that he had sold over 100 pounds of the stuff before he realized that it might be used for nefarious purposes. He then shut down on the sale of it to persons with whom he was not intimately acquainted.

Work was again commenced at Morewood this morning with an increased number of men which will doubtless be doubled by tomorrow. The workmen feel reassured of their safety by the presence of the National guard, and are working with a will. Nothing of special interest occurred during today.

POULISH YOUNG WOMAN.

Thought Death Was Preferable and so Chose It.

SANTA FE, April 7.—News of an Easter Sunday tragedy at White Oaks, N. M., reached here today, the affair being a double suicide, in which two handsome young women, formerly of Liberty, Mo., were the principals.

The names of the women are Mrs. Howard Doyle and Miss Jessie Ridgely. Mrs. Doyle had been separated from her husband for some time and had made a confident of Miss Ridgely. It is that Mrs. Doyle was a devotee of the occult, and Miss Ridgely to commit suicide at the same time. The bodies of the women were found in a lot of land near the railroad. Over the heart of each was a bullet hole. They were clasped in each other's arms and between them was a revolver, which had a place on the mantle in Miss Ridgely's bedroom.

Their cloaks had been neatly folded and their shoes were placed to each side. They were pinned notes to various friends. One letter expressed the desire that they be buried in the same grave. None of the letters gave the reason for the rash act. "Death is sweet and we prefer it to life."

GOD SPEED IN RACE.

A Wedding That Has a Terribly Tragical Ending.

New York, April 7.—A distressing tragedy occurred at East Rahway, N. J., last night. Anton Henry was married at the residence of the bride's parents, and there was a throng of friends present. In the midst of the festivities the bride and groom started for their carriage to take the train for their honeymoon trip. The guests crowded to the door with rice and old shoes to bid the couple God speed. Henry Metz, a friend of the groom, took a revolver from his pocket and thoughtlessly loaded only with blank cartridges and meant to fire as a salute. He is believed to have been somewhat the worse for wine. He discharged the weapon and Henry fell dead to the sidewalk. Metz had fired too low. The bride is frantic with grief. Metz was arrested.

He Got Cheap Notoriety.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—The Yokohama Daily Advertiser denies the story of Capt. Morris of the sailing vessel Helena, lately published in the United States that the crew of the Helena, sailing from San Francisco, were maltreated by Russian men-of-war, that seven Japanese were shot, and that the survivors were forced to work in the Siberian mines. The commander of one of the seized vessels says the captured crews were well treated and soon released, and that Morris was not the captain of the Helena.

A Leading St. Jo Firm.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., April 7.—The wholesale hardware firm of Shurtz & Hoson has made a voluntary assignment. The assignment was caused by a disagreement between the partners. Mr. Hoson becoming greatly worried because collections were poor. The liabilities are reported to be $200,000, while the assets are $225,000.

Will Buy the Thistle.

BELLEVILLE, April 7.—Eugene William has purchased the celebrated Scotch cat yacht Thistle, and it is expected that he will enter the boat in the great race for the Queen's cup, which takes place off the Isle of Wight. In the race for the American cup the Thistle was defeated by the American yacht Volunteer.

An Important Meeting.

CINCINNATI, April 7.—The executive council of the Irish National league will be held in this city Thursday, April 10. The object of the meeting is to discuss the question and take action in regard to endorsing Patrick.

A Massachusetts Bank.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., April 7.—The Stockbridge Savings Bank has been placed in the hands of a receiver owing to the defection of $20,000 by Treasurer Willis and poor loans of $40,000. The depositors will lose about 30 per cent.

BARNUM IS GLAD.

Bridgeport's Republicanism Pleases the Dying Showman.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 7.—P. T. Barnum's attending physician, Dr. C. C. Godfrey, has been in attendance upon Mr. Barnum all night. He stated to the United Press representative at 10 o'clock this morning that he believed that the famous showman would not live many hours. The doctor describes his condition as "cyanotic."

Barnum was conscious up to 10 o'clock this morning and recognized those who gathered around his bedside. Shortly after 8 o'clock Dr. Godfrey aroused him from a slight slumber and told him that the city had gone republican in yesterday's election. In a very feeble voice Mr. Barnum murmured: "I am glad." Dr. Godfrey believes that his death will be due to loss of respiration, or heart failure. His respiration and pulse is growing weaker by the moment, and the doctor gives it as his opinion that the veteran showman will not last the day through.

COLORADO'S LEGISLATURE.

It Closes a Spectacle for Gods and Men.

DENVER, Col., April 7.—The eighth general assembly adjourned at midnight. It has accomplished but little. The early days of the house were taken up in a disgraceful row over the speakership, which lasted for weeks and resulted in the killing of Police Inspector Hawley and the seriously wounding of one of his men. Its other work can be summed up in the election of Henry M. Teller to the United States senate, passage of the Australian system of balloting and the metropolitan police and fire bill and the appropriation of $100,000 for the World's fair.

The most important measure refused was a railroad bill, and a bill providing for a national amendment to bind the state's indebtedness. Both of these measures were demanded by the people and the last was considered of the greatest importance as the actions of the seventh assembly greatly increased the debt and to some extent injured the state's credit.

Republican Days.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn.—The republicans yesterday elected William H. Marigold mayor by 220 majority. The republicans also elected the tax collector. The rest of the ticket is democratic. The result of the election was a great surprise, as the city is usually democratic by 1000 majority.

Tiffin, Ohio.—Yesterday's election was a surprise to both the leading parties. The republicans for the first time in eighteen years elected the mayor and gained two Aldermen in the First and Second wards. The democrats elect marshal, collector, board of education and majority of council.

TODAY'S FIRES.

St. Augustine Fla.—The finely equipped works of the St. Augustine Gas Light company were burned yesterday. The loss is $65,000 with but a small insurance.

Beebe, Ark.—The business portion of this town is destroyed by fire. Aggregate loss is about $120,000; partially insured. The origin is unknown.

Stay of Proceedings Granted.

New York, April 7.—Judge Barrett this morning in the court of over and terminer granted an application for a ten days stay of proceedings in the case of the New Haven railroad directors indicted for the Harlem tunnel accident. This stops proceedings in the general sessions court until the motion for a change of venue to the court of over and terminer is argued a week from Thursday.

Underpaid European Miners.

LOOSEPOY, April 7.—Comparisons made at the miners' conference show that the Belgian miners are the worst paid of any. Their average wages being two shillings daily. French miners receive three shillings, and German miners are paid from three to four shillings, but it has only been since their strikes of 1889 that the Germans have received such amounts.

Young Dempsey Beaten.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., April 7.—George Webber, of St. Paul, and young Dempsey, of California, lightweights, fought seven rounds before the athletic club last night for a purse of $500. At the end of the seventeenth round Dempsey threw up the fight, bones in both hands having been broken.

Painters Gain.

New York, April 7.—Twelve firms have granted the demands of painters for $5.50 a day of eight hours. This leaves eight firms holding out, employing about 175 men. The building trades will be called on to co-operate with the painters and the stubborn firms will probably yield.

A Defaulter at Lynn.

LYNN, April 7.—Ex-clerk of the board of health, Henry A. Plimpton, who was deposed from office several months ago, is now alleged to be a defaulter to a considerable amount. It is also stated that the receipt books of the health department from 1887 to 1889 are missing.

Too Many Bad Debts.

HOLYOKE, Mass., April 7.—The big mill of the Whinn Paper company was sold at auction today under foreclosure of a mortgage held by the Massachusetts Mutual Insurance company. The sale of the mill was to have occurred last Saturday.

Liquor Dealer Assigns.

New York, April 7.—Charles E. Claggett, dealer in wines and liquors at No. 10 William street, made an assignment today to Charles K. Lansing Jr. without preferences.

Haines, was drawn for the grand jury. Mr. Haines was excused on account of sickness. At the opening of the afternoon session the grand jury was charged by Judge Stearns.

ITS ANNIVERSARY.

Duluth G. A. R. Men and a Historical Retrospect.

A large audience last evening witnessed the exercises held at the First Methodist church in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the G. A. R. Hon. O. P. Stearns presided with him several prominent volunteer citizens occupied the platform. The features of the evening were addresses by Comrades Selzer and Wally, reading of orders by Comrade W. G. Ten Brook; a prayer by Chaplain Stocking; a solo, "The Sword of Bunker Hill," by the same gentleman; and a recitation, "You Put No Flowers On My Papa's Grave," by Master Thomas Chalmers. It should be remarked that the church was beautifully decorated with flags and flowers.

The most interesting part of the program consisted of Mr. Selzer's address on the founding of Sherbrook post. Afterward became known as Willis A. Gorman post. The first call for the organization of a post was published March 18, 1871, and three days later twenty-seven ex-soldiers assembled in A. N. Selzer's office to discuss the matter. Two weeks later, Sherbrook post No. 26, was organized by Albert S. Chase, alderman on council at that time, and J. C. Hamilton, department commander. The post was named after Lieut. Geo. Sherbrook, the first soldier who enlisted from St. Louis county and who was killed at Vicksburg. The first officers of the post were: Commander, Major A. N. Selzer; senior vice commander, J. C. Hamilton; junior vice commander, J. C. Hamilton; adjutant, H. A. Kiehl; W. M. E. H. Foster; sergeant major, E. P. Foster; quartermaster, sergeant, E. H. J. Foster; orator of Dr. Arno Johanning; O. G. W. A. Greenfield; delegate to department encampment, A. S. Chase; alternate, A. P. Peterson.

On May 25, 1871, the post was presented by the ladies of Duluth with a Bible and hymn book. Rev. J. A. Gilliland was missionary among the Indians, making the presentation speech. On the following memorial day the post turned out in full force. Col. Culver was marshal and Col. Graves and Major J. L. Smith, assistant marshals. The exercises were conducted in the old cemetery on Rice street, where D. J. Selzer, who enlisted from Duluth in the Thirtieth Wisconsin, was buried. Mayor Clinton Markham presided. The exercises were a feature of the parade. One pleasing feature of the exercises was the singing of flowers by several little girls, most of whom have since occupied prominent places among Duluth's women. They were Gertrude Eldridge, Maggie Hunter, Jennie Culver, Louise Axelsson, Mamie Emery, Clara Stone, Mollie Marvin and Katie Hunter. They rode in a wagon drawn by the mules of Comrade T. I. Stokes, which he drove in the army when a teamster of Company L, Sixth Minnesota. Major Selzer and Rev. C. C. Selzer delivered the addresses on this first memorial anniversary and Comrade A. S. Gorman read a poem written by Mrs. Major J. L. Smith. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was recited from memory by Rev. H. Webb, J. Rakowski, J. Greenfield, A. P. Peterson, Asst. Daily, Charles H. Stokes, and C. Frank Foster constituted the firing party, which was commanded by Adjutant Kiehl. A touching scene occurred at the close of the ceremony of decorating the grave when two little 4-year-old girls, Gertrude McQuade and Minnie Jacobs, came forward with two wreaths of flowers gathered in and around Duluth.

On July 4, 1872, the post held a grand celebration at Old Ensign hall. It had a prosperous career until 1876, when the G. A. R. under the old regime disbanded. On March 28, 1882, Samuel Bloomer, of Stillwater, whose daughter resides here, now organized a new post, which was named Willis A. Gorman, No. 12. The name was selected by Comrade Presnell, Jefferson, Bassett and Austin, the representatives of the old First Minnesota. Willis A. Gorman was the first colonel of that famous regiment. His career was a brilliant one, having served as a major in an Indian regiment during the Mexican war, as a member of congress from Indiana and as the second governor of the territory of Minnesota. At the close of the war he was discharged and lived in St. Paul until his death in 1872.

TO THE ATLANTIC.

It has been the dream of commercial men for decades to open a waterway from the great lakes to the Atlantic. This idea if susceptible of encouragement thirty years ago is much more so today. Industrial development and commercial enterprise have redoubled the reasons for establishing a waterway from the agricultural and manufacturing centers of the West bordering on the lakes and tributary thereto, to the open sea line and the commercial ports of the world. Investigation and discussion have made this anticipated need a study, and the program is in accordance with the intelligence and need of modern times.

The Herald has already alluded at length to the most important investigations of a noted engineer, E. L. Corbitt, of New York and Chicago, looking toward such a waterway, connecting the head of Lake Superior with the ocean and the old world across the sea, printing some weeks ago long extracts from Mr. Corbitt's most valuable paper on the subject. The entire question is, however, of such transcendent importance to Duluth and the entire country of which the lakes are the soul, that no iteration of already expressed ideas can be trite.

The projected links in the chain of inland sea are planned by Mr. Corbitt to float a ship with a draught of twenty feet and a weight vessel and cargo, of 5000 tons. Anything less would in the line of economy be a failure, and as a competitive factor in transport be out of the race with our perfected railroad system. Speed, capacity and unbroken communication are vital conditions. It must be a through route from the lakes to Europe without transfer or delay. Old canals were only in consonance with local conditions. They were simply rudimentary and provisional, and have in many cases surrendered their ownership and traffic to the railroad. The new idea has an ocean prerogative, and is comprehensive of the local and the international.

Investigation establishes this possibility on an economic and available basis. The distance between the chief ports of Lakes Michigan and Superior and Liverpool is about 4000 miles of water navigation, and only seventy-one of these are restricted by natural obstacles in the channels. The most acceptable route, as already pointed out in this paper, is that from Duluth or Chicago to the head of Georgian bay, whence a ship rail way will carry vessels and cargoes into Lake Ontario and an enlargement of St. Lawrence canals will complete the links needed. This is called the Huron route and is far the cheapest of all proposed. It will require but the building of the short ship railway as the Canadian government is already committed to the enlargement of the St. Lawrence canals. The enlargement of these canals, and the removal of tolls between Lake Ontario and Montreal would reduce the total cost of transportation from the lakes to Liverpool twenty to twenty-two cents per ton. The Huron route as compared with the all-rail route to New York would be less than one-half the cost by rail.

There is no project now under consideration of such importance to Duluth and the Herald believes the chamber of commerce can do nothing that would so redound to its credit as to aid in this matter. Toronto, by its commercial bodies and newspapers, is already hard at work, eminent engineers and members of parliament are started. The Huron route to the coast is assured, let Duluth be in from start to finish.

THE CLEMENCEAU CASE.
 What may result from a little advertising founded cleverly on the prurient taste supposed to be an inheritance of every man, has been clearly shown in the play "Clemenceau Case" which has been for several months traveling over the country and last night was given in Duluth.

The "Clemenceau Case," as it was given in Duluth last night, is but a French play, of the usual French morale, and has nothing in all its lines or situations to either shock the most modest or to interest a theater goer. It is weak in plot and in people and would long ago have died a deserved death but for the silly prudery of some Easterners who saw in its situations much more than they are intended to show or do show.

WHAT WILL RESULT?

Advices from England indicate that the much heralded enterprise, by which Sault Ste. Marie is to be made a big manufacturing center is likely to be pushed. The company is organized for utilizing the water power of Lake Superior, and constructing very extensive works in the vicinity of Sault Ste. Marie. The waters of Lake Superior fall at the Sault about thirty feet to the level of Lake Huron, and careful measurements and calculation show the actual velocity and volume of water to be 122,000 feet per second, equivalent to 256,000 horse power. This company intends, so it claims, to build a tail race five miles long on the Canadian side, and a canal five miles long on the American side. These canals are to be each 1000 feet wide, the widest in the world. They will construct large dry docks to be filled and emptied by gravitation. On the Canadian side all the principal works will be above the rapids, and on the American side below. Blast furnaces and shipyards, and it is expected paper mills, flour mills and other industries will be established, say the sanguine promoters, and both the Canadian and American Sault are expected to wake from their sleep of years.

There is just one question The Herald would like to ask in connection with all this boom which has Lake Superior for a mill pond and the West for a supply yard, and it asks this question solely for information. Will not two canals, each 1000 feet wide tapping Lake Superior at the Sault, have effect enough on the water of the lake to lower the level in the government canal? And will either the United States or Canadian government permit any works to be carried on that will damage what they are doing? While a difference in the lake level of a few inches, or even a foot, might have no effect on the harbors of the lake it would be of tremendous moment to the carrying interests of the North.

Many a nickel makes a muckle and only takes twenty nickels to make a dollar. And it is not difficult to save many a nickel if one turns his attention to it and has the proper convenience for "saving down" a nickel. One opportunity to do this is to be supplied to the people by Milwaukee which The Herald would commend to the Peoples Bank of Duluth. In all parts of the city retail druggists and grocers are to be made agents for the sale of nickel stamps. If one has a nickel that he would like to save, he buys a stamp, pastes it in a stamp book, and when he fills a page (representing twenty nickels) he tears out the page, writes his name and address on it and sends it to the bank, or gives it to any agent who sends it for him. This makes a dollar saved down for a damp day. It doesn't take long to acquire the habit of saving nickels and at the end of a year one is not the worse for the beer he didn't drink or the cigars he didn't smoke and he has some dollars to his credit, he has the pride of self denial, he has the habit of saving and he is a capitalist. It is a good thing for every person who does this and a good thing for the community. A bank is a benefit to a community in making the business transactions easy, but it serves its best purpose when it incites men to save money which they do not need to spend. This system is in operation in Detroit and in some German cities and there is no estimating the full measure of its usefulness.

The action of the board of public works in regard to City Engineer Fuller has been strongly commented on today as an uncourteous and uncalled for slur toward a well-known officer. These comments are based on false assumptions. Mr. Fuller's removal was decided upon by the board—which has exclusive control—but he is to act as engineer until a successor may be appointed, which may not be for months, and the board had no idea that the fact of his expected suspension would come up until his successor should be chosen. Neither is the change the result of any attempt on Mr. Fuller's part to become a Pooh Bah, or because of the street commissioner's ship.

Chicago's city elections are taking place today and the telegraph brings reports that they are the warmest ever had. In the name of good government let us hope that neither Cregier nor Harrison may be elected. The World's fair city needs a man who will be non-partisan, firm and honest and neither Harrison nor Cregier fills either condition.

The public library board has shown a wise economy in granting City Librarian Neff leave of absence to visit and study in several of the most noted public and college libraries of America. That her visit will result in the good of the Duluth library cannot be doubted.

From the speeches of Jerry Simpson and the magazine articles of Peffer and others who are farmers for politics chiefly, the general public may learn that when you come down to the question of right, nobody has any excuse for being on this planet except the farmers.

Building Inspector Robinson raked off $58 last month. Building Inspector Robinson is getting rich altogether too fast, there'll have to be a divide soon.

SEEN AND HEARD.

"I never go by the High school building that is under course of construction," said my friend, Judge Busch, "without commenting to myself that it is truly a mammoth affair. No one who sees the huge, and at the same time artistically arranged, pile can help admitting that the city which rears such a structure is alive and thoroughly progressive. The money placed in it is money well spent. We don't have too many or too good schools in Duluth. You may want me to qualify the first part of my statement, but I shall not. Ever since Duluth got her start away back in 1870 she has been at a loss for plenty of school room, even through the dull days up to 1880. From 1880 on we have been erecting schoolhouses at a very rapid rate, and yet we have had to put our wits together to give them all a chance to take advantage of the excellent course of instruction furnished."

My friend, the doctor, tells me that the typhoid epidemic is rapidly dying out. Of this I am very glad, for it is unpleasant to see one's friends afflicted with a disease so dangerous and so criminal. I suppose that within a couple of months we may find the city without a case of typhoid, within three months we may conclude that there was more of a scare over the epidemic than was necessary, within four months allow that the gas and water company was greatly maligned, within five months decide that a new intake pipe would be useless and the removal of the old one down the lake not be thought of for a moment, and within six months calling each other names because we didn't petition the legislature when it was in session to allow us the pleasure of voting as a city to guarantee the bonds of the gas and water company. By the time we have become highly incensed to think that the company has been so badly used the fever will begin to make its appearance again. Then we will cast the blame on the city and so on and so on until Mr. Craig in another investigation.

There is one man in town who swears eternal hatred to Chicago. His name is Merchant—Stephen L. Merchant. Some few years ago that gentleman had occasion to pay a visit to Chicago and became impressed with the opportunities offered here to the investor. He determined to locate here, but shortly after fell in with several business men of Chicago, who proved to him that Duluth was too far north to grow any larger. The Chicago men at the same time proved that their city was the only one that held out a promising future, and so Mr. Merchant became a Chicagoan. Three years later he saw his mistake and at once came to Duluth, and has never had cause to regret the change. "I might have made a fortune here," said he, "if I had come when I first intended. That's what makes me so hot against those Chicago fellows. And to this day I would rather undergo a great amount of inconvenience to go East by any other route than those leading through Chicago. I want to see the day when Chicago will be so badly sidetracked that it will be an unusual thing for Duluth people to pass that city on their way East. And I believe that day is not far distant." Mr. Merchant, it is almost needless to say, is now making up for lost time.

Among others who last evening were informed of the suspension of City Engineer Fuller, none were more surprised than the aldermen. The matter was not formally brought before the body, but came as a sort of "thunder clap in a clear day," as it were. The opening of the council meeting had been marked, as everyone expected, by sundry resolutions and valiant exclamations on the part of Alderman Kennedy, presumably on account of the recent discharge of the friend Street Commissioner Westaway. A hurried consultation was held in which Henry Truesden, president of the board of public works took part, and Bob Kennedy's Italian countenance was again all smiles and ripples. Just at the close of business Kennedy arose and quietly asked why Engineer Fuller still retained his office when he had been suspended. It was a peculiar climax with which to conclude a council meeting which had been predicted would be one of the most stormy on record and which on the contrary was unusually lamb-like.

APRIL
 [Mary B. Sleight, in Harpers Bazar.]
 When with the lengthening days tumultuous March Through field and wood in ruthless fury raved
 And, though each tender twig her city craved,
 Looked down the budding boughs of elm and larch,
 "Be patient, heart," we sighed, "a little while,
 And we shall hail dear April's sunny smile."
 But April scarce her gracious wand had waved,
 When, with a maddening pang the fog came retreat,
 And hid behind her cloud-wrought curtains gray,
 Nor smile nor glance vouchsafes the live-long day.
 Those whom of old her witching face enslaved,
 But wait! The curtains part! See, coy and sweet,
 With misty eyes she stands in soft array,
 And swift her eager swains are at her feet.
